I was absolutely thrilled to receive the MRF award, and not knowing what to expect, was very pleased to find at the first workshop that I was surrounded by lovely people and great musicians, all with a passion for composing. The brief challenged me to write for a solo instrument, which I hadn't done before.

This has been a great learning experience for me and I am very thankful to the foundation for supporting me on my journey as a composer. Having just had a piece performed by a 100 piece orchestra at Southampton guildhall, I am now looking forward to starting at the RCM's junior program next year.
